Variance (Alternate Materials and Methods) Request

(Revised 11/10/2024)

The Colorado Conveyance Regulations allow the Northwest Colorado Council of Governments (NWCCOG) to grant the use of alternate materials and methods, on a case-specific basis, for the implementation requirements. The submission of this form does not relieve a person from complying with the standards adopted in statute or regulation unless OPS approves the use of the proposed alternate materials and methods. Submit this completed form and any related materials to the NWCCOG at the email address listed above.
